

Andrus Alber

Andrus Alber is an entrepreneur and financial services professional with 30+ years of experience in public and private sector and international organisations.

During his career Mr. Alber has worked for the central bank of Estonia, for the IMF, for Nasdaq, has been economic adviser to the President of the Republic of Estonia, been co-founder of a bank and a fintech company. Currently he serves as an independent supervisory board member (representing retail investors) in an investment fund and is a Board member of FinanceEstonia – an NGO gathering financial market participants of Estonia who are interested in the development of capital markets, financial services and financial literacy.

Mr. Alber has a master's degree in international relations from Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy in the USA and a bachelor's degree in economics from Tallinn University of Technology.